My name is Renee M. Garcia and I currently reside in the state of Oregon, US. Since becoming a Reality Transurfer in my daily life my whole worldview has completely changed! My life is happier, brighter and I easily achieve goals in line with who I am as an individual. I am so passionate about Transurfing I have completed the appropriate steps to become a Certified Reality Transurfing Consultant and Guide.

I am an entrepreneur at heart, with many successful businesses under my wing, so I specialize in assisting you in achieving your professional goals. I also have firm understanding of interpersonal relationships and personal growth as an individual. I can help you achieve the magical, successful reality that was intended for you. I don't think I can help you, I know I can help you!

I am available for one on one lessons and can also Certify you as a Reality Transurfing Instructor as well. I travel both domestically and internationally to you as an instructor and can also host locally in my home town.

I look forward to hearing from you!
